

Lepo Token (LEPO) Whitepaper

Abstract

Lepo Token (LEPO) is a decentralized, community-driven meme coin inspired by the concept of luck and prosperity. Designed to foster engagement and community participation, LEPO represents a new generation of meme coins that emphasize utility, transparency, and inclusivity. With its mascot, Lucky Lepo, and an ecosystem focused on growth, LEPO aims to redefine how meme coins operate within the DeFi landscape.

1. Introduction

Lepo Token is built on the OP Mainnet (Optimism) and is designed as a fully decentralized meme coin. With a limited supply of 10 billion tokens, LEPO's purpose is to create an inclusive financial system powered by the community, offering opportunities for users to participate in liquidity pools, staking, and governance.

2. Vision and Mission

Vision: To become the luckiest and most community-driven meme coin with a market capitalization exceeding 1 trillion KRW by leveraging Web3 technology and fostering a global community.

Mission:

- To empower users through transparency and decentralization.
 - To provide sustainable tokenomics that reward active participation.
 - To establish a platform where users can engage with LEPO through DeFi tools and gamified experiences.

3. Tokenomics3.1 Total Supply

- 10,000,000,000 LEPO

3.2 Distribution

Category	Percentage Amount (LEPO)
Community Airdrop	50%	5,000,000,000
Liquidity Pool	30%	3,000,000,000
Development & Marketing	15%	1,500,000,000
Team Reserve	5%	500,000,000

4. Use Cases4.1 Community Rewards

LEPO incentivizes community engagement through airdrops, giveaways, and staking rewards.

4.2 Trading and Liquidity

LEPO is actively traded on Uniswap, with a liquidity pool pairing LEPO and ETH. Users can provide liquidity to earn fees and participate in DeFi opportunities.

4.3 Branding and Utility

LEPO plans to extend its ecosystem by incorporating:

- NFTs: Lucky Lepo-inspired digital collectibles.
 - Merchandise: Branded items for community engagement.
 - Gaming: Gamified staking and play-to-earn systems.

5. Community and Governance

LEPO is designed to be fully decentralized and community-driven:

- DAO Governance: Future plans include a Decentralized Autonomous Organization (DAO) to empower community members to vote on proposals and initiatives.
 - Transparency: All token transactions, liquidity pool details, and project updates are openly shared via blockchain explorers and official platforms.
